What do we mean by "franchise"?

A franchise is a small business that is associated with a larger brand. The benefits of this business model is that the franchisee (the person who buys the franchise) is able to work for themselves, while tapping into the reputation and support network of an established business.

What are the start-up costs?

Initial investment

The cost of a Green Acres franchise starts at $23,000 and is dependent on the level of income you're looking for and the type of franchise you want.

As part of this initial investment, you'll receive a fullycomprehensive equipment pack, that provides all the tools of the trade you'll need - from uniforms, vehicle signage and safety equipment, to marketing collateral, accounting tools and client management software. With this collection of essentials, you'll be confident and prepared to get your business up and running.

Remember that you may need to buy a suitable vehicle for your business. We do ask that you drive a serviceable, white coloured vehicle that will meet the needs of your business area (garden or cleaning services).

How do I choose an investment level?

You can tailor the best package to suit your circumstances and aspirations. Best of all, there are no limitations on your maximum earning capacity.

To work out exactly how much income you could earn as a Green Acres franchisee, check out our Design Your Own Business tool. You'll be able to experiment with investment levels and hours to find a work-life balance that works for you.

Extra capital

It's sensible to allow up to 6 months of working capital up-front, which will provide a buffer for fluctuating income levels, and cover any unexpected start-up costs.

What about financing?

Our alliance partner, ANZ Bank, can look to provide an unsecured business loan of up to 70% of the cost of your franchise (with the option of further lending if you have equity in your home).

ANZ will also give you fee-free banking for the first 12 months on your Green Acres business account, to help you get up and running.

Are there any ongoing fees?

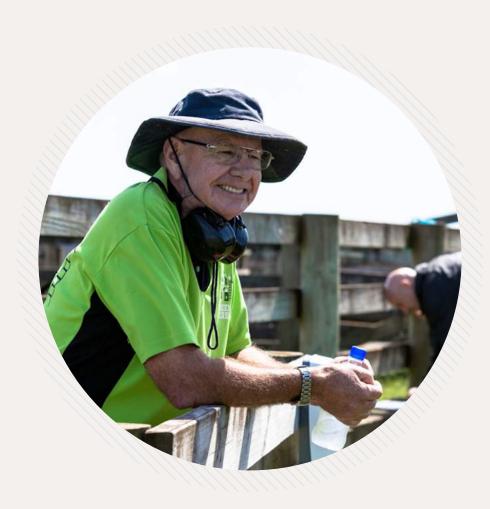

Your Royalty and Brand Levy are contributions towards the running costs for your area and are designed to benefit you. They will be fixed according to the investment level you choose; this means if you grow your business, you won't be penalised with higher fees.

In addition, every franchisee contributes to the technology fund administered by the national support office.

There are no hidden extra fees.

How much can I make?

As much as you like! The opportunities get as big as you want them to be, with our largest franchises turning over $250,000. You can design your business to be anything from an extra income channel or retirement fund, to a business empire that employs an entire workforce. There are no limits. And we'll never penalise you for growing your business with any fees fixed at the start-up stage.

How do I get customers and grow my business?

We guarantee you can reach your desired income by utilising our proven systems, and implementing practical learnings from our training programme (outlined below). When you start your business you will have in place a business plan that will enable you to grow your business, and a dedicated Business Advisor will guide you along the journey during regular one-on-one reviews.
